BLOTS AND KISSES.

"Yours, with love," Cordelia wrote.
Then added postscript to the note:
"Please forgive the blots and kisses.
Just mistake them all for kisses."
Tom, enraptured, seized a pen;
Scrawled answer there and then:
"If blots are kisses, pull the throttle,
Please upset the whole ink bottle."
—Heck Harrington.

Yesterday noon a country lad about 18 years old made an exhibition of himself in front of the L. and N. ticket office by drawing from his hip pocket a flask of whisky and taking a swig, then passing it over to another who did likewise. It is possible he is ignorant of the fact that he was fracturing the law, as well as making himself the object of public ridicule.

Yesterday afternoon W. F. Power's little 7-year-old son was playing in front of his father's store, casting stones. Henry White, colored, happened along, and probably one of the stones came his way. However that may be, the colored man gathered up a stone and hurled it at the child in a vicious manner and barely missed his mark. White was arrested by Chief Donovan a short time after the occurrence and will have his trial this morning.

OFTEN KEEP SECRETS

How Editors Sometimes Save Family Names From Disgrace

Honesty is the best policy, as no doubt the fellow in this case is now convinced.

Yesterday Chief Donovan was approached by a gentleman who informed him that he had been robbed of a roll containing $150.

The Chief took the matter up and after putting this and that together, formed an opinion as to who the guilty party was.

The conversation between Chief Donovan and the accused was about as follows:

"You have this money and I know it. If you turn every cent over to me, the matter will drop, otherwise you are good for at least six years in the Pen."

The fellow replied, "Well I have not got it." "Yes, but I know you have, and the matter is now up to you. Either give it up or take the consequence."

With this he turned and was about to depart when the man called him back.

Beads of cold sweat were standing on his forehead as he said:

"Chief, I have it and will get it for you."

The money was produced and counted in the presence of the owner, every dollar being turned over to him.

The Ledger Scribe does not know who the parties to this transaction are, but it is vouched for as a truth by Chief Donovan himself.

Last Saturday's Business

was a repetition of the previous Saturday. Were it not for the kind patience many of our customers exercised we could not have waited on all. There is a strong tie of confidence between this store and its patrons, one that can only exist as the result of years of acquaintance. Season after season we endeavor to do better than in the years before. Our efforts are appreciated. This week we show an entire new line of Wool Crash Suits, Panama Hats, and Tan Shoes to go with them. The weather is coming right for Negligee Shirts. We want to show you the greatest line ever brought here. The Faultless and Manhattan are the brands. We just must say a few words about our Men's and Boys' Shoes. We are awfully proud of our Shoes, and our customers are correspondingly proud of wearing them. We knew our community wanted good shoes and provided well for them.

Women's Knit Underwear!

Hard to think of any particular sort of Women's Underwear you can't find in this stock. We've made it complete and given careful attention to materials, styles and weights. Each garment is made with especial care as to comfort, correct proportion and consequent comfort. And we are pointedly proud of our moderate prices. The following list is illustrative rather than comprehensive:

It must be just so in weight and fit, else he's miserable. We have some inexpensive garments that are most carefully fashioned. 25c and 50c each.

The 1904 Embroideries!

Words won't describe the richness and delicacy of the patterns. Women who wish the finest and most exclusive embroideries should see these. The collection is superb. Bandings, Galons, Insertions in batiste, heavy or light, in great profusion at 10c to 50c yard. All-overs in exquisite designs, 22 and 45 inches wide, 50c to $3 1/2 yard.

WE GIVE GLOBE STAMPS. THE BEE HIVE WE GIVE GLOBE STAMPS.

THE CHILDREN and US.

There is no house in the state of Kentucky that is paying more attention to their Children's Department than we are. We are making a special effort to care for the young folk because we realize that this store will some day be dependent on these children for its support. We can furnish the child with clothes from the minute it's born until it's time to depart. We want the children to know us like the famous Castoria—when they are children they cry for Merz Bros.; when they become misses they cry for Merz Bros.; when they become women they cry for Merz Bros. It does no child harm to be in close touch with a progressive house like this. It stimulates them on to great ideas and undertakings. DON'T STOP THEM. Maysville has had enough of OLD FOGIES. It might not be amiss to tell a little story that was heard a few weeks ago, when four little youngsters, ages 7 to 10, were playing on the site that was burnt down, now being erected for us: No. 1 said, Merz Bros. are going to put up a store here. No. 2 said, yes they are, because my mother read it in the paper. No. 3 said, I knew it before it was in the paper; and No. 4, not to be outdone, replied, I knew it the night it burnt down. Keep your eye on No. 4; he will be one of Maysville's greatest men. We wonder how many people thought of this besides this boy and us!

MARCONI's project to publish a daily newspaper in mid-ocean may excite jealousy from those Democratic Editors whose land-locked publications are now at sea.

THE Geographical Editor of THE LEDGER a few days ago literally picked up the city of Lisbon by the seat of its pants and lifted it over into Spain—a blunder that was promptly discovered by the Highball Editor.

A BLACKSNAKE four and a half feet long was killed Sunday night in Gano alley back of Zumstein's Livery Stable. —Times-Star.

And this within a block of The Times-Star Building, right in the heart of Cincinnati. What awful whisky they must have in that neighborhood.

A FEW days ago The Times-Star's "Curiosity Shop" Philosopher gave out the information that a certain office was kept open "until 6 p. m. in the evening." Right you are, Ikey; but it would have sounded somewhat strange if you'd told the inquirer that the office would be open until 6 p. m. in the morning. JOHN, pull down the window down.

MARCONI, inventor of the wireless telegraph, proposes to publish on ocean steamers a "wireless newspaper." In the absence of definite information as to what that is, it will probably be printed on paperless paper on a pressless press with inkless ink and rollerless rollers; and its editorless Editors will all wear Union Label collar-buttons on the bosom of their pants.

EDITORS ARE FORGOTTEN.

The Inside Inn, the inside hotel, is about the only thing in the World's Fairgrounds that is making money. It has been advertised by every newspaper in the United States and has been given a big send-off. The Editors, however, find when they call for an exchange of courtesies from the hotel management that they are forgotten. The Inside Inn has worked the editorial fraternity most beautifully. —Madisonville Graphic.

Not every newspaper, Br'er GLENN. While the enticing literature of the slick managers of the "Inside Inn" was for weeks a heavy strain on the waste-basket, not a line of it broke into THE LEDGER. And this reference is made only to show that it is probably a good place—to stay away from.

Isn't it about time to cease "slobbering" over the late WILLIAM GOEBEL? A writer in The Lexington Leader comes pretty near sizing up the situation in the following—

"Editor Leader: We see by the press that Goebel's statue is to be exhibited here. Have we reached that point in our downward course where murder, robbery, intrigue and disfranchisement must be idealized in marble or bronze?

"The antithesis of all that this man ever stood for is alone worthy of praise. Our need is for virtue not vice, honor not shame, freedom not slavery, a respector of the law rather than the violator of solemn trusts under his spurious semblances, a statesman not a juggler. The world is full of the records of heroes. Stand them in line and they would encircle the earth over and over again. Hold their deeds aloft, in books or marble or bronze, and all mankind will feel the electric thrill of an added dignity to life. So in the name of all these, in the name of the headless statue of CLAY, that needs crowning, in the name of purity, truth and justice that we need to nurture to life again in our beloved state, and in the name of all concentrated good do not force us to behold, as a thing of honor, this memorial of our shame and disgrace."

Political Pickings

Ashland Independent.

"To gossip is to slander." In a large business office in Ashland it is an ironclad rule that anyone in the office who speaks disrespectfully of any person shall be fined 25 cents. For instance, yesterday, after one of the young men had waited upon a customer, he said: "That fellow acts to me like he was full of bug juice," whereupon he was asked to at once hand over his 25 cents. Pretty good rule is this. Why it's even good enough for a place in the constitution and by-laws of some of our Women's Clubs and Ladies' Societies.

ANXIOUS MOTHER

Separated From Her Little Tot in the City Yesterday

Mrs. Fred Adams of Jersey Ridge brought her little daughter to town yesterday to attend a rehearsal of some kind at the Christian Church. The Postoffice corner was to be their trying-place.

The mother crossed the river to call on a friend, while the child visited the Church. In the deal somehow they became separated, and for a while there was a distracted mother and a frightened child.

Through the kind offices of a Fourth street lady mother and child were brought together much to the joy of all concerned.

GOOD SPIRITS.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver; and all the fine spirits ever made in the Bluegrass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred and one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower, the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trials of Motherhood

395 Broad Street.
PHILADELPHIA, PA., June 12, 1903.
I suffered for nine years with ovarian troubles making life a burden to myself as well as to my family. During that time I had two miscarriages and although we longed for a child to bless our home this seemed impossible. I had constant racking bearing-down pains in the pelvic organs and a pulling through my limbs with frequent headaches. I felt sick at my stomach and vomited frequently and no medicine helped me until I tried Wine of Cardui.
Then my general health improved, the pains gradually lessened and after six weeks I was well. I am now the happy mother of a boy eighteen months old and my husband joins me in sending heartfelt thanks to you for your splendid medicine. Without it, I would have been a childless, instead of a happy and well mother.
Mrs. Frederick Nirdlinger
CHAIRMAN, ST. ANDREW'S ASSOCIATION.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui is the most successful menstrual regulator. By regulating menstruation, Wine of Cardui banishes inflammation from the entire female organism and the strengthened ligaments bring the organs back to their proper place. This is what Wine of Cardui did for Mrs. Nirdlinger. It banished the racking pains and burning inflammation and brought her relief. She was restored to health and strength and gives Wine of Cardui the credit of making her able to become a happy mother. This medicine equips a woman for every duty of wifehood and motherhood. There are many suffering women who think that health can never be theirs because they cannot secure the services of a great specialist, but we want to say right here that while Mrs. Nirdlinger lives in Philadelphia, a great medical center, she depended on Wine of Cardui for a cure and she was cured. This same medicine is within your reach. Will you take it?
All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

River News

Gage 20.0 and rising.

Coal and timber have been pouring out of the Kanawha lately.

The Tacoma passed up last night for Pomero, and the Virginia for Pittsburgh.

The coal fleet will leave about 8,000,000 bushels of fuel in the Cincinnati harbor.

The Keystone State will be down tonight from Pittsburgh, returning on her up trip tomorrow night.

Captain Samuel Brown, aged 68, an old-time river ferryman, died at his home in Newport of pneumonia.

Andy Keim, Clerk of the big Pittsburgh towboat Alice Brown, will be married to Miss Katherine Wilson of Canton, O., June 9th.

The new steamer Hidalgo Et Liberator, built by James Rees & Sons of Pittsburgh for the Mexican Government, has been completed.

The City of Louisville will leave Cincinnati June 4th for the St. Louis World's Fair. She has been chartered for a trip by the Queen City Tourist Company.

There will be no more coal shipments from Pittsburgh unless the river climbs up the banks again. Monday the Volunteer started with three barges two flats; Enterprise, ten barges, three flats; Tom Lisle, seven barges; Ranger, seven barges. This shows that the operators consider the stage too low for coalboats.

The Greenland, a new sidewheel steamer, left Pittsburgh Monday with the first excursion from that place to the St. Louis Exposition. She has a full passenger list and will make the round trip in three weeks, giving her passengers one week at the Fair and stopping a short time at Louisville and Cincinnati. The distance from Pittsburgh is 1,153 miles and it is said to be the first steamer in twenty years that has left the city with passengers on a through trip to St. Louis. Captain Gordon Greene is owner and master of the boat, and his wife, Mrs. Mary Greene, a licensed pilot, is helping him at the wheel.

Colonel R. B. Lovel as usual leads in getting good things for his customers. Yesterday he received his first shipment of home-grown strawberries from E. R. Lindsey, the Berry King of Lewis county. The fruit was unusually large and luscious, far ahead of anything that has been on the market here this season. When you want the best Mr. Lovel's store is the place to look for it.

The only product Mason county now has for export is straw and eggs. On the other hand farmers are buying corn, hay and other feed stuff in large quantities. Corn at 65 cents a bushel is too much of a luxury to feed hogs, consequently the county is pretty well cleaned out of hogs. Instead of planting so much tobacco why not diversify the crop and raise more corn, hay, oats, potatoes and wheat? It certainly would pay a larger dividend and not be so hard on the land.

REDMEN'S POWWOW

Make It the Biggest Week in the History of Maysville

The Powwow is less than three weeks off. Begin now to get ready for this week of festivity. Get out your flags and bunting and look them over and add some Indian decorations, and be ready to decorate your business house or residence and thus have the old town to be in gala attire on the opening of the Carnival.

The people of Maysville and surrounding country can depend upon having more for their pleasure and amusement during the week of June 13th than ever before, and the "Pike of the St. Louis Exposition" will be right here at home, with fourteen high class shows furnished by the famous Robinson Amusement Company, which is highly indorsed by the citizens of Lexington and Ashland and the committee in charge of this Carnival.

Six big free attractions will be seen at intervals during each day, and four big parades will take place during the week. Taking it all in all, the week of June 13th promises to be the one big and only week in Maysville's history.

Tell your friends and let the word go forth to boost for the success of the Redmen's Powwow and Summer Carnival, and the honor and glory of New Maysville.

There's plenty of fishing at the Northfork, but fish are not so plentiful.

George Dodson, son of Mr. Almar Dodson, is quite ill with appendicitis.

Mr. Charles Miller of Cincinnati is here at the bedside of his father, Captain Jacob Miller.

Mrs. Louis Smoot entertains with a lawn party Friday afternoon at her home in the county.

Jerry Hunt, colored, who killed Sam Davis at Flemingsburg, is said to be in the Philippines having lately joined the Army.

No More Women Need Be Sick.

Zoa Phora Will Restore You to Health and Strength and Happiness—Has Cured All Who Used It—Will Cure You.

FREE TRIAL BOTTLE TO ALL WOMEN. Zoa Phora is sure enough "The Woman's Friend." This is no bald, gratuitous statement. It is justified by facts. It is supported by letters of gratitude and joy and praise from every community in the land. Every mail brings these letters and tens of thousands of them are in our possession.

MRS. EFFIE BATES, Muncie, Ind. Zoa Phora cures leucorrhea, suppressed and painful periods, flooding, displacements, piles, all irregularities, liver, kidney and bladder troubles and regulates the change of life. It makes childbirth easy and takes away the dread of that fearful ordeal. It is the greatest blessing of the age for weak and suffering women and has made thousands happy who were dragging out their lives in misery and pain.

Mrs. Effie Bates, Muncie, Ind., R. F. D. No. 1, says: "When a girl I suffered death every month when I came around, even my hands seemed to swell, and I seemed almost blind at times and I was irregular. I would feel as though I would fall backwards and didn't feel safe by myself at my monthly periods. I used some few bottles of Zoa Phora and that brought me regular and so that I didn't suffer scarcely any and the queer feelings left me."

"Write the Zoa Phora Co., Kalamazoo, Mich., for a free trial bottle and copy of their illustrated medical book, 'Dr. Penzance's Advice to Women.' The doctor will gladly give free special advice when needed. Zoa Phora is for sale at $1.00 a bottle by all druggists."

The Germantown Lodge of K. of P., Sago Tribe of Redmen and the Masonic Lodge will observe Decoration Day at that place Saturday. Judge C. D. Newell of this city is one of the speakers.

Marion Hicks, said to be a bad man, was jailed yesterday for being drunk and incidentally for stealing a john boat from Frank Glenn of the West End. Hicks had traded the boat to Glenn for a watch and then stole the boat from the latter. The matter will be straightened out in the Police Court this morning.

A GREAT RECORD

Hard To Duplicate It In Maysville.

Scores of representative citizens of Maysville are testifying on the following subject. Such a record of local indorsement is unequalled in modern times. This public statement made by a citizen is but one of the many that have preceded it and the hundreds that will follow. Read it.

Mrs. W. F. Woodward residing at West End near Pogue's distillery says:

"Pains in the back and other evidences of a disturbed condition of the kidneys were quickly and thoroughly cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. There is no reason why ladies should suffer from backache and kindred troubles when such a reliable and effective preparation can be had."

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.
